MAXWELL AND FORD MISSING

Miss Georgia Hunt Reports Theft of Coupe While at Game—John Kennedy's Coupe Taken

Two automobiles were stolen and a business house entered by robbers during the night according to the police report this morning, and at noon, no trace of the thefts had been obtained.

Machines owned by John W. Kenedy and Miss Georgia Hunt, were reported stolen and the office of John P. Frazee and Son, lumber dealers and coal merchants, was entered by thieves, but nothing was believed to have been stolen.

The theft of the automobile owned by Miss Hunt, who lives at 208 East Eighth street, was reported shortly after the Rushville-Shelbyville basketball game. The car, a Maxwell coupe, license number 155095, was stolen from North Willow street where it was parked, while the occupants were attending the game at the Graham Annex gymnasium. Miss Hunt is a school teacher at Webb school.

The machine owned by Mr. Kenedy was stolen from in front of his residence, 404 West Third street, where he had left it for the night.
Neighbors heard the car when it was started about two o'clock this morning. His machine was a 1923
Ford coupe.

The owners of each machine carried insurance. The police of surrounding cities were notified of the thefts.

The Frazee office is located a block west of the Kennedy home, and the police are of the opinion that the robbers who broke into the office, also made their escape by stealing the Ford coupe from in front of the Kennedy home.

At the lumber yard office, a window was smashed in order to get inside of the building. The desks and other compartments were ransacked, but the heavy safe was not tampered with, and Patrolman Will Havens, who investigated today, stated that nothing was missing from the office. The damage to the broken glass was estimated at $4.

Family Gatherings Are Rule for Thanksgiving and Many Hunters
Take Advantage of Day

UNION SERVICES TONIGHT

Rush county went about the business of celebrating Thanksgiving Day in much the same way as it always has in the past.

Family gatherings were the rule throughout the county. Many hun-

CAUSE OF THANKS

BY HAL COCHRAN

Sum up the things that you really possess,
And you'll find that you're living in wealth.
Think of the good things that offset the stress,
And consider your friends and your health.
The troubles that come, and we all have our share,
Make the good things in life even greater.
We realize that when we stop to compare;
There are tough breaks, but good ones come later.

Misfortune may visit you once in a while,
But the question is, how do you take it?
The wrong way's to grumble; the right way's to smile;
After all, life is just what you make it.
If conscience is clear and your soul is awake,
And you ever keep good thoughts in store;
If you're living and doing for other folk's sake,
You have much to be thankful for.

SEEKS DIVORCE ON PRISON LAW

Mrs. Eleanor Sorrell Brings Action Against Charlie Sorrell, Now
Serving Life Term

NO OTHER CHARGE NEEDED

No Court Scheduled Today on Account of Thanksgiving—Court Case Heard Wednesday

Alleging that her husband is a lifetime convict in the prison at Michigan City, Mrs. Eleanor Sorrell has filed suit for divorce from Charlie Sorrell, in the circuit court, bringing the action under the provision provided for such cases.

Mrs. Sorrell says in her complaint that they were married October 22, 1921 and separated February 6, 1922 on which date she says her husband was convicted on a charge of murder, and has failed to provide since, because of his imprisonment. She says that she is employed as a clerk for the Illinois Central railroad.

There was no court today on account of the Thanksgiving Day holiday and the offices in the court house were closed in observance of the day.

In court Wednesday, Judge
Sparks heard the case of Robert O.
Kennedy against William T. Curry, the action being on an account alleged to be past due, and the action was taken under advisement.

The suit involved a $16 account, which the plaintiff, who is a physician of this city, says is due him on an unpaid bill. The case was heard recently in Justice Stech's court and the decision was appealed to the higher court.

The case of the Westerfield Pharmaceutical Company against Walter T.
Vandament was called for trial
Wednesday, and judgment on a note was entered for the plaintiff, for the amount of $90.43 and costs.

Another case set for trial Friday was expected to be called off, as it was understood that a motion for a change of venue was to be filed.

INTERESTCENTERS IN BOTTLE OF ACID

Authorities Endeavor to Determine
Where it Was During First Few Days of Investigation

SHEATSLEY FURNACE MYSTERY

Theory is That it Was in Possession of Murderer, Who in Fit of Remorse Planned Suicide

(By United Press)

Columbus, Ohio, Nov. 27—The interest of authorities attempting to unravel the Sheatsley murder mystery, centered today on the bottle of carbolic acid which disappeared mysteriously from the parsonage medicine cabinet on the day of Mrs.
Sheatsley's death, only to reappear
a week later when detectives again searched the house.

If authorities can determine where the acid was during the first few days of investigation, they believe they will have taken the first important step toward solving the mystery as how the body of the Lutheran pastor's wife got into the parsonage furnace.

Although John R. King, county prosecutor in charge of the investigation, was keeping his moves closely guarded, it was learned that he is bending every effort to solve the carbolic acid mystery as a key to the bigger puzzle as to who killed Mrs.
Addie Sheatsley.

The new theory which the prosecutor has brought up and on which he intends to spend his Thanksgiving is the result of much investigation.
King believes whoever took the acid out of the cabinet took it for the purpose of destroying his own life in a fit of remorse after the slaying of Mrs. Sheatsley.

Then losing his nerve, the slayer at some later date, perhaps after the Rev. Sheatsley and four children had gone to Canton, slipped back into the house and replaced the bottle. The suspect in connection with this theory is known to authorities and is available to them for questioning. (Continued on Page Six)

MRS. JORDAN IS NAMED CHAIRMAN

Sec. Hoover Appoints Local Woman to Head Committee to Promote Better Homes Week

TO BE HELD MAY 10-17, 1925

More Than 1500 Communities in Nation Conducted Better Homes
Campaign This Year

The first step in the preparation for Better Homes Week in Rushville for 1925, which will be held May 10 to 17, throughout the country, was made today, when Mrs. John Jordan, 916 North Main street, accepted the invitation of Secretary of Commerce Herbert Hoover to serve as chairman of a local committee to promote and develop a Better Homes demonstration.

More than 1500 progressive communities throughout the entire 48 states and develop a Better Homes Campaigns last year, and the influence of these demonstrations and observances has made a lasting impression on those districts, says a report from National Headquarters.

The importance of community effort to render assistance to the prospective home buyer or builder in meeting the desires for a real home becomes apparent when it is realized that of five billions of dollars expended in building construction throughout the United States for 1924, two billions are for residential construction. And to this huge sum must be added hundreds of millions which will be expended for furnishing and equipment of homes.

Better Homes in America is an educational movement which was formed about three and a half years ago. Supported by private gifts and public funds, and having no commercial backing or connections, it has been working since that time under the presidency of Herbert Hoover to help attain the following objectives:

To put knowledge of high standards in house-building, home-furnishing and equipment, and home life within the reach of all citizens.

To encourage the building of sound, attractive, economical single-family houses; to encourage the reconditioning and remodeling of old houses to render them sanitary, attractive and convenient, and to encourage thrift for home ownership.

To encourage general study of the housing problem and the problems of family life, to demonstrate each year the best types of house construction, home furnishing, and labor saving devices for the home which are within the reach of families in moderate circumstances.

To encourage sensible and appropriate furnishing for the home and the elimination of needless burdens in housekeeping.

To promote the improvement of

Horn of Plenty

Red Letter Days like Thanksgiving may lose some of their thrill and glamor as we grow older.
But it's a comfort to know that there's always a rising generation to whom Thanksgiving is an event of importance not far behind Santa Claus.

Originally when the pioneers were wearing knee breeches and shooting turkeys with blunderbusses, Thanksgiving was a solemn occasion — a day of thanks that Providence had blessed with abundant crops to preserve them from starvation.

No longer are people grateful for necessities.
Thanks are raised only if the horn of plenty dis-gorges luxuries. One reason is that, while we have business depressions, we no longer have, for contrast, hard times as they thought of hard times in 1873.

The pinch is not as tight,
even at its worst.

Largely it's a matter of thoughtlessness. If we pause to ponder our material prosperity, unprecedented in any other country or any previous civilization in mankind's long history, we realize that we have reason galore for thanks. If the early pioneers had had our brand of prosperity, our standard of living, they'd have thought they were passed on to the Promised Land.

America as we have it was born of hardship and human sacrifices. We are the Chosen People. Bring on the turkey—or must it be a bird of paradise before we admit gratitude?

BALTZWELL MAY NOT BE APPOINTED

Judge Anderson Can Veto Any Appointment and He is Very Friendly Toward Homer Elliott

BALTZWELL IS WATSON MAN

Indiana Senator Admits Defeat in His Attempt to Oust Bert Morgan
From Prohibition Department

(By United Press)

Indianapolis, Ind., Nov. 27—While reports from Washington indicate that Senator Watson has asked President Coolidge to name Judge Baltzwell, of Princeton, as successor to Judge A. B. Anderson on the bench of the United States district court here, rumors were current about the federal building today that Baltzwell may not get the appointment.

The promotion of Judge Anderson to the United States Circuit Court of Appeals in Chicago is expected, at any time.

Judge Anderson, it is pointed out, can veto any appointment to the local bench by refusing to resign.

It is said that Judge Anderson is very friendly toward Homer Elliott, district attorney, as a likely successor to the district judgeship.

Elliott, appointed to the position of district attorney, is expected to resign when the litigation to the Hawkins Mortgage Co., mail fraud case is out of the way.

He announced his intention of quitting early in the fall but was induced by Attorney General Stone to remain in office until the Hawkins case was tried.

Watson has practically admitted defeat in his attempt to oust Bert Morgan as head of the federal prohibition department in Indiana. Morgan is planning to serve until his term expires next June.

Both Elliott and Morgan were appointed on recommendation of Harry
S. New when he was in the senate.

It is reported that Harry Long,
of Muncie, the Watson candidate to succeed Elliott, has let it be known he does not want the job. His salary with the shipping board in Washington is larger than that of the district attorney.

REPEAL TO AWAIT DECISION

No Action on Income Tax Publicity
While Litigation Pends

Washington, Nov. 27—Repeal of the tax publicity clause in the Internal Revenue law, may await the decision of the court in test cases brought against newspapers by Attorney General Stone. Publicity of tax lists under the law as it now stands is not legal, in the opinion of representative Nicholas Longworth, Ohio Republican floor leader.

Despite announcements from several quarters that a bill for repeal of the section would be introduced as soon as congress convenes, Longworth said he knew of no general move in the house for its repeal at this session while litigation is pending.

MAYS

A tea and bazaar will be given at the home of Mrs. John Bowles in Mays, Saturday afternoon, Nov. 29. Everyone is cordially invited.

Word was received here Monday of the death of L. A. Hufferd, a former resident of Mays. He died at the insane hospital in Indianapolis. The funeral was held at his late residence in Greenfield Tuesday afternoon and burial took place at Arlington.

A good crowd attended the Education Week meeting at the church Thursday evening. A good program was given by the Mays school and the address by Dr. Wilson was enjoyed by all.

Mrs. Gay McBride delightfully entertained the Sunshine Club Wednesday afternoon. Twelve members responded to roll call by giving sketches of pioneer days in Indiana. After a short business meeting, the hostess served lovely refreshments.

Mr. and Mrs. M. Foster, Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Dale and daughter of Leisner, Ind., and Mr. and Mrs. W. B. McDaniel were the Sunday guests of Mr. and Mrs. Rufus Rhodes and Mrs. Elizabeth Oldham.

Mr. and Mrs. George Bell and Mr. and Mrs. Wilbur Gray were the dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Kirkham Thursday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Lee Hall and son Max spent Sunday with Gail McBride and family.

Mr. and Mrs. B. J. Whitton transacted business at Noblesville Wednesday.

Mrs. John Leisure and Mrs. Henry Jessup of Carthage spent Thursday afternoon with Mrs. Isaac Stevens.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Lord and daughters of Dunreith, Clarence Lord and family and Walter Lord and family spent Sunday with Mrs. Victoria Lord.

Mrs. Hannah McDaniel spent Friday with Mrs. Elizabeth Oldham and Clara Rhodes.

Mr. and Mrs. B. J. Whitton attended the funeral of Isaac Webb at Rushville Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Lightfoot of Thorntown visited Mr. and Mrs. George Bell a few days last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Lord, Mrs. Victoria Lord and Mrs. Ethel Clark attended the funeral of L. A. Hufferd in Greenfield Tuesday afternoon.

Miss Elmyra Rush entertained the Sewing Circle Tuesday evening. Those present were the Misses Fern and Zula McBride, Nellie Kirkham, Edna Swart, Bernice Lamb and Cathryn Hobbs.

The Sunshine Club and their families will have a pitch-in supper at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Wilbur Gray Wednesday evening.

RICHLAND

Otis Miller was a business visitor in Rushville Monday morning.

Mrs. Erma Bever of Anderson spent the latter part of the week with Mr. and Mrs. Charles Moore and family.

OLD-TIME DINNER IS BECOMING OBSOLETE

Hotel Managers Declare They Were Swamped With Orders to Spread Tables With Turkey

CHEAPER THAN BEFORE WAR

Indianapolis, Ind., Nov. 27.—Many housewives took a vacation with the rest of the family here today.

They ate their Thanksgiving dinners in downtown hotels. Hotel managers declared that the old-fashioned Thanksgiving dinner is becoming obsolete and that they were swamped with orders to spread their tables with turkey and cranberry sauce today.

A comparison of Thanksgiving dinner prices at various hotels showed that a turkey dinner today costs approximately twenty-five cents less than before the war. That is, a dinner without a wine list. In pre-war days a dinner that would cost $2.00 today costs now approximately $1.75 but with wine added, the pre-war dinners ran as high as $3.00.

The Severin hotel here announced a turkey dinner at $1.50, while the Claypool served turkey and its trimmings at $2.00.

But the people who dined on the rich fare at hotels here had nothing on the boys and girls at Marion County Juvenile Detention home here. They had chicken, sweet potatoes, mashed potatoes and gravy, pumpkin and mince pies, candy, cake, ice cream, cranberries and other trimmings.

SERIES OF RAIDS CARRIED OUT

British Reported to Have Discovered Plot in Cairo, Egypt

Cairo, Egypt, Nov. 27.—British military authorities carried out a series of raids as rumors of unrest spread through the city.

A number of prominent persons were arrested including, Braka Pasha, minister of the interior in the late cabinet, and a widespread plot against the English was believed to have been discovered.

Meantime the number of troops in the street increased and the sullen temper of the people became more apparent.

God Will Provide:—Take no thought saving, What shall we eat? or, What shall we drink? or, Wherewithal shall we be clothed? But seek ye first the kingdom of God, and His righteousness; and all these things shall be added unto you. Matthew 6: 31, 33.

Prayer:—O Lord, we would live by faith and not by sight, for Thou hast given us Jesus Christ, and with Him Thou wilt also freely give us all things.

Overstuffed Living

"Don't pity the poor; rather have pity on the rich," said a local physician the other day. "Name one person who starved to death and I will name a hundred who ate themselves to death."

This is a good thing to remember on this day of feasting.

In the days of our forefathers men were keen of mind, active of body and rugged of honesty.

They ate simple food and not too much of it.

The generation of today is not to be compared with that of one hundred years ago, even though the average length of life is longer. This is attributed to better care of the young and increased knowledge regarding disease prevention, control and cure.

Any physician will give the same testimony as the one referred to above. We do not measure up physically to those of a generation ago because there is too much to eat and too much of it is eaten.

It is true that we have made wonderful forward strides in the past century. But they are no greater than the opportunities warranted. And they never originated in the brains of gourmands.

The fact can't be denied that we are literally eating ourselves to death, slowly but surely. We eat as our fancy dictates and we eat the wrong food to excess.

If we really knew the proportion of the population that is afflicted with the ills coming from over-indulgence in the wrong kind of food, the figures would be staggering.

The child that is stuffed and pampered from the time it begins to eat solid food will not develop a normal mind or body. The system can not properly assimilate the over-abundance of stuff that it is permitted to eat. Mental deficiency and bodily ailments are the inevitable results.

We may eat ourselves to death if we prefer, when we become our own masters, and that is purely our own affair.

But we have no right to stuff a child beyond capacity that is injurious to a body not yet matured.

The child knows no better but we do, or should.

Uncomfortably Close

Indiana bank robberies in recent days should serve to remind us that veggmens who work without fear of interference in daylight are coming uncomfortably close.

After the looting of the Converse bank, the bankers of Warsaw took immediate steps for their own protection. They are taking no chances.

The Rochester Sentinel says that it would not be amiss to revive the almost forgotten "vigilance" squads. Then bank robbers could be received royally.

During an "epidemic" of bank robberies some time ago, Mayor Thomas arranged for one police officer to be on the public square during the noon hour when there was a lull in business, to guard against any unexpected attack.

It would be the part of caution

for local peace officers to keep uppermost in their minds that a bank
robbery is not impossible in Rushville any time, because it is being done in the best regulated towns
and cities.

WASHINGTON—No similar event in Washington official and social circles, since the birth of a daughter to President and Mrs. Cleveland back in the '90s, has so piqued the interest of the capital as has the report that the stork shortly will pay a visit to the home of Nick and Alice Longworth.

It is suggested the arrival of an heir might play an important part in the political as well as the personal future of the popular Cincinnati congressman.

Should the stork time its arrival propitiously, the House might be minded to hand Nick the speakership, for which he is a candidate, as a token of its felicitations.

Some members, however, believe that with a baby in the home Nick would be more valuable in his present position of floor leader. "A new father is bound to get a lot of valuable experience on the floor," they say.

SECRETARY OF NAVY—WILBUR knocked the tradition that cabinet members must always move with circumspection and dignity for "a row of ten-pins" the other night when he showed up at the Y. M. C. A. bowling alleys.

Wilbur shed his coat, rolled up his sleeves and forgot all about dignity and circumspection for an hour, while he hurled the ebony ball down the alleys for a succession of spares and strikes.

After he got the kinks out of his elbow Wilbur is said to have hurled a mighty wicked ball.

CHALK up another victory for Washington's bobbed hair brigade.

Incensed by criticism of bobbed heads, voiced by a visiting evangelist, choir girls in the Mount Vernon Methodist Church walked out on strike. It took all the diplomacy of the pastor, plus an open appreciation of bobbed-haired girls as "a mighty fine lot" to win them back.

ONLY on formal occasions do statesmen and diplomats in Washington don the shining, tall top hat—the "plug" hat—which a generation or so ago was affected by every legislator from the sticks who came to the capital.

But there is one person in Washington who holds fast to the fashion of the old days.

Charles C. Lancaster, lawyer and son-in-law of the late Samuel J. Randall, who was speaker of the House from 1877 to 1881, never walks abroad without his shining "plug."

Winter and summer, rain or shine, Lancaster's towering figure in his towering hat, is one of the sights of the city—a touch of what the capital looked like in the good old days before high buildings came in and high hats went out.

If you have visited the capital building any time in the last three or four years, you doubtless paused to watch the interestingly attired person who, apparently oblivious of the rubbering crowds around him, was engaged in restoring the brilliantly colored mural decorations of the big building.

If you came today, however, you'd miss him. For the artist fell in love with one visitor who paused to admire his work and today they are honeymooning.

This painter, Charles Ayer Whipple, has given a touch of color to the gray old building where Congress meets that will be remembered by visitors when they have forgotten what the decorations on the walls looked like.

In his jaunty artist's smock, a Tam O'Shanter cocked artistically over one ear, a long stemmed pipe in his mouth and a big palette splashed with vivid colors and stuck full of brushes, he himself made a picture more striking than any of the pictures he painted.

SHELBYVILLE IS FORCED TO LIMIT

Narrowly Escape Defeat as Field Goal in Last Minute of Play Puts Them One Point Ahead

FOUL GOAL AFTER THE GUN

Lions Climb on Opponents in Last Half, But Slow up When Two Men are Lost on Fouls

The Rushville high school basketball team, playing a brand of ball that wins basketball games, lost out in the last minute of play Wednesday night with the Shelbyville high school, after keeping a lead throughout the last half, only falling by two points, 31 to 29 with the final shot.

The game was played here before a large crowd of rooters from both cities, and although Shelbyville had come here expecting an easy time, they were forced the limit in order to put across a victory, and the game was not settled until the last minute of play.

Shelbyville displayed a good passing and floor work team, and had two players that stood out as basket shots. They started off fast in the first half, and left Rushville behind, before the Lions could settle down in their pace.

When the Lions finally came to themselves, the score was 14 to 5 and before the first half ended Shelbyville was held without scoring anymore, and Rushville had climbed to 13 points.

In the start of the last half, Rushville went in the lead, and were never headed until the fatal goal was made in the last minute of play, and only after two of Rushville's star performers, Lakin at center and McNamara at floor guard, had gone out on fouls. The pace the locals were setting when these players went out, would no doubt have caused a ten or twelve point victory for Rushville.

The officials, Mowe and Vandiver, performed in good style, with the possible criticism that the fouls were called too close, both Shelbyville and Rushville having two players to go off on fouls. The whistles were blowing continuously and it was evident that neither team was having some of the fouls called. In all, Rushville made good 11 baskets on fouls and Shelbyville made good 9.

Right in the start of the game Lakin was fouled, and Latschaw made good one of the two points for Shelbyville, and then McNamara fouled and Fix missed the shot for the visitors. Arbuckle anchored one in for Rushville making the score 2 to 1, and when Dungan fouled, Lakin made good both shots for the Lions, putting the score 4 to 1.

Ewick, center for Shelbyville dribbled through for a basket, and when Miller fouled, Latschaw tied the score at four points. McNamara made his second foul, and Latschaw put his team in the front 5 to 4. In the next McNamara scored on the play from the foul. Latschaw fouled, but McNamara missed the chance, and on the next play McNamara fouled for his third time, and Latschaw scored one of the two chances, making the score 12 to 5. Ewick scored from the field for two more points for the visitors.

Dungan fouled again, and McNamara fouled Shelbyville showed a spurt with baskets in rapid time by Latschaw and two by Ewick, which put the score 11 to 4 in favor of the visitors, and Rushville called time.

Then with the score 14 to 5, Rushville began to hit their pace, with baskets by Lakin, Newbold and Arbuckle, making the score 14 to 11 and Shelbyville called time out. When the play was resumed, Dungan was fouled for his third time, and Arbuckle missed the chance. Lakin fouled and Fix missed both shots for Shelbyville. Lakin scored from the field, sending the score 14 to 13 and before the half ended, Lakin made his third personal foul and Newbold was fouled, but Shelbyville did not score on the chances.

Then at the start of the second half, Lakin dropped in two baskets in fast time, making Rushville the leader, 17 to 14. Newbold fouled and Ewick scored one point, and when Latschaw came down the side line, he tied the score at 17 points.

Dungan, back guard for Shelbyville, fouled for his fourth personal, and went out, and Newbold made one of the two chances on the foul, putting Rushville ahead 18 to 17. Keeny who went in for Dungan, fouled, and Arbuckle made good one of the two chances, giving Rushville 19 and Shelbyville 17. Lakin added another point on a foul, when Latschaw held him. When Lakin came through for another basket, the score was 22 to 17 and Shelbyville was again forced to call time.

The game had ten minutes to go, and on the next toss up, McNamara made his fourth foul, and went out, with Latschaw making good both of the free throws. Shelbyville's back guard fouled again, and Arbuckle made both of the shots, putting the score 24 to 19. Fix scored a field goal for Shelbyville.

Lakin fouled next and went out on personals, just as the Lions were hitting their fast stride. Arbuckle next sent the ball in for two points, keeping Rushville in the lead 26 to 21. Newbold fouled next, but Ewick missed the shot.

Fix scored under the basket for Shelbyville with Miller being fouled at the time, and the goal counted, and Fix scored one point on a foul, adding three points to Shelbyville, and putting the score 26 to 24 with the Lions leading. The time was getting short.

Keeny fouled again for Shelbyville and Cherry, who had gone in at center for Lakin, made both shots count, giving Rushville a four point advantage 28 to 24.

Keeny redeemed himself for the errors when he dropped in a long shot for Shelbyville, and like a flash Fix scored from the field, tying the score at 28 points, with two minutes left to play.

Rushville called time out, and when play resumed Arbuckle missed a chance on a foul, but Newbold was given two chances and made good one of them, making the score 29 to 28 in favor of Rushville. Shelbyville fought frantically for the field goal, and Kendall swung one from under the basket putting them in the lead, 30 to 29. A foul was called just as the gun sounded, and Latschaw was given two chances, and scored one, as the crowd was swarming out onto the floor. Shelbyville had won by a hair's breadth, 31 to 29.

The game was a fine exhibition of ball playing by both teams. Shelbyville's pass work was excellent, while Rushville's defense seemed to be on equal terms, and basketball fans would welcome another game this season between the two, but no other game is scheduled, unless the two meet at the district tourney in Connersville in January.

The line-up and summary:

Seconds Win Their Game

The Rushville second team won their game in the curtain raiser Wednesday night, defeating Greensburg seconds, 20 to 18. The feature of the game was the comeback staged by the visiting team in the last few minutes, which threatened to tie the score.

Rushville had things their own way and were ahead 14 to 5 at the end of the first half. Toward the end of the game, the locals were in the lead by a big score, but Greensburg broke loose on hitting the basket, and they could not be stopped. The only thing that prevented a tie score was the time keeper's gun.

The line-up and summary:
Rushville—20 Greensburg—18

FOOTBALL SOON GOES ON SHELF

Two Games With Definite Championship Bearing Scheduled Today, End of Season Saturday

ALABAMA MEETS GEORGIA

Will Decide Southern Title and Missouri and Kansas Meet For Mississippi Valley Title

By HENRY L. FARRELL

(U. P. Staff Correspondent)

New York, Nov. 27.—With few games of importance scattered over the country, the 1924 football season reached the last turn in the road today and is just two days from the finish.

Two games with a definite championship bearing are carried on the Thanksgiving day program. Alabama and Georgia meet in a game that will decide the southern championship and Missouri and Kansas, the two ancient rivals of the Missouri Valley conference, meet in a battle that will decide Missouri's aspirations.

Missouri can clinch the championship of the conference with a victory over Kansas, but a defeat will give the title to Nebraska. Missouri, with a better record over the season, is considered the favorite to win.

Pennsylvania, one of the unbeaten teams in the east, plays Cornell in Philadelphia, in their annual game. For the first time since 1920, Pennsylvania goes into the game a favorite to win.

Several western and many eastern coaches are expected at the game.

Syracuse and Columbia meet in New York in a game that will be of interest to the far west as Syracuse is booked to play the University of California in a post season game. Syracuse started out almost impressively this fall but the team slowed up in mid-season and may be just getting back to a second edge in preparation for the coast trip.

Syracuse is a slight favorite to beat Columbia, but most anything can happen. Columbia has a fine team as it showed in holding the powerful Army team to a tie. Some critics said that the Army did well in getting a tie with Columbia.

Alabama and Georgia have an important game in the south. Georgia is leading the conference and can finish with the championship by beating Alabama tomorrow and Centre on Saturday, although Centre is not rated as a conference team.

Movies

Conway Tearle is Star

Only on the promise that Colleen Moore would alone do the throwing dressing room articles was a strike of twelve temperamental "extras" averted at the First National studios during the production of "Flirting With Love" the current attraction at the Princess Theatre, in which Miss Moore is co-featured with Conway Tearle.

The near-walkout was actuated by a number of well-aimed missiles that rained upon the extras with painful results.

The script called for several dressing room articles to be hurled through the door by Miss Moore, who portrays a temperamental actress in this new film. Her right arm lacked sufficient pitching power and a number of studio huskies were recruited to do the hurling from in back of the scene.

Violent application of muscle power by the "grips" proved too much for the extras and they were compelled to seek shelter off the set. When recalled for the re-filming of the scene they refused to go on and threatened to walk out in a body unless the promiscuous flinging of shoes and brushes was left to Colleen.

Good Word for Birds

Many birds believed pests are actually of help to the farmer, according to a recent survey, which claims that thousands are ruthlessly slaughtered in belief that they are grain or fruit eaters when they really live on insects. English sparrows feed upon the seven-year locust, and other insects, and should be protected. Contrary to belief, the crow's good trait is its bad habits, and all shore birds are beneficial.—Exchange

NEW SALEM TOSSERS SMOTHER BROOKVILLE

Fast Independent Team of Noble Township Has Big End of 57 to 18 Count

TO PLAY EVERTON NEXT

The New Salem Independent basketball team defeated the fast Brookville team Tuesday night at New Salem by the score of 57 to 18. It was the first defeat of the season for Brookville. The half ended 24 to 10, with New Salem in the front. The point getters for New Salem were K. Wilson and Brickler, while the rest of the team performed to good advantage.

The New Salem team has lost but one game and is going to get revenge on that team, which was New Palestine in the near future when another game is scheduled. The next game for New Salem will be Saturday December 6, when Everton comes to New Salem.

The line-up and summary of the game:
New Salem 57 Brookville 18

MOSCOW WINS AT MILROY

Jumps into Limelight as Contender For County Honors

Moscow high school jumped into the limelight as a contender for county honors, when they defeated their old time rivals of Milroy, Wednesday night, on the floor in Milroy, by the score of 30 to 27.

The game was close all of the way, and was hard fought. Moscow jumped in the lead early and managed to keep in front a few notches, and when the first half ended the score was 24 to 17. In the last half Milroy outscored them, 10 to 6, but Moscow had managed to pile up the winning points in the first half.

Brings up Training Problem

By HENRY L. FARRELL

(United Press Sports Editor)

New York, Nov. 27.—Louis Angel Firpo's case well might be held up as one of the horrible examples in future arguments on the subject—"Is it worth while to train?"

There have been many views expressed on this question in the past and there will be further discussion in the future about the value of intensive work to prepare for athletic competition.

There never has been a doubt that physical condition is essential to success on athletic fields, but there has been a difference in opinion about the methods by which this physical condition can be acquired.

British athletes, who are as careful about training as any athletes in the world, laugh at the strict training methods of Americans as being something that only takes the joy out of life and removes the fun from competition. It would seem

Connersville Performs in Good Style and Wins Over Newcastle

Connersville high school dedicated their new gymnasium Wednesday night with a one point victory, defeating Newcastle 30 to 29. The game was close from the start, and the first half ended with Connersville leading 18 to 12 and in the last half Newcastle broke through and tied the score, and came within a point of winning.

The Newcastle team will be the next opponent for Rushville, and will be here Friday night. The Newcastle team will send a large crowd here for the game, and the contest will attract many basketball fans because the game is expected to be a close one.

Takes Things Easy With Two Regulars Out. Saving up for Manila Friday Night

SCORE AT HALF IS 29 TO 3

Arlington high school outclassed the Gings basketball team Wednesday night at Arlington, by the score of 52 to 18. The game was slow and uninteresting with Arlington taking things easy, with two regulars out.

Arlington has a hard game in store Friday night, when Manila will come to Arlington, and it is doubtful whether Price and Woods will be in shape by that time. In the game last night Arlington was ahead 29 to 3 at the end of the first half.

What fun do you fellows get out of athletics? an English runner asked a number of American friends during the Olympic games last summer. He had just knocked off a big schooner of stout and was topping it off with a good smoke. "You live like hermits, sleep like chickens, eat like a dyspeptic and drink like one of your prohibitionists. You deprive yourself of enjoyment for months just for a few minutes' running."

The Americans replied that the fun they got out of athletics was a trip to Paris, and if they didn't train their places on the team would have been taken by an athlete who did train.

The curtain raiser was played between the girls of the two schools, and in this contest the New Salem girls turned the tide, and won 22 to 14. The game was exciting and well played in each quarter.

KIDNAPPED AND ASSAULTED

Chicago, Nov. 27—Katherine Lapierre, a beautiful girl of 20, reported to police early today she had been kidnapped and assaulted by two young men during the night.

Miss Lapierre was motoring with Thomas Imposino, she said, when the youths jumped on the running board of the car, beat her into unconsciousness, then took her to a secluded railroad crossing and assaulted her. Physicians, after an examination, confirmed her story.

Imposino after regaining consciousness, reported his end of the story almost simultaneously with the girl. The young thugs took no money.

BANDITS ROB MARION, IND. BANK OF $4,000

Two Remain Outside Building and Five Rush Officials and Customers with Drawn Revolvers

ROBBERS WORK RAPIDLY

Marion, Ind., Nov. 27—Seven armed bandits late Wednesday afternoon held up and robbed the South Marion State bank at Thirty-first and Washington streets and escaped with $4,000. The bandit gang drove up to the bank in a large car with side curtains and bearing a yellow license tag. Two of the robbers stayed outside the bank, and five rushed in with drawn revolvers.

Two bank officials and two customers were in the bank when the robbers entered. M. E. Pope of the Grey Iron Foundry Company, and Mrs. George W. Vaneleave were at the bank windows, and B. W. Baxter, cashier, and Margie Warner, assistant cashier, were in the cashier's cage. The robbers ordered them to throw up their hands.

The cashier, assistant cashier and Mr. Pope were forced into the vault and Mrs. Vaneleave was shoved into a back room. The bandits worked rapidly, and gathering in the $4,000, rushed to their automobile, the motor of which had been left running, and drove southward traveling at a high rate of speed.

BANKS LOSE $42,000 BY ROBBERS IN 1924

Indiana Loses Only About Half as Much This Year as They Did in The Year of 1923

GOOD PROTECTIVE MEASURES

Indianapolis, Ind., Nov. 27—Indiana banks have lost only about one-half as much to bank robbers this year as they did in 1923, according to a report of the Indiana Bankers' Association today.

The report attributed this to the fact that banks are taking better protective measures. More banks are installing modern alarm devices, better vaults and safes and are arming their employees.

Robbers obtained $85,930 last year while this year the total has reached only $42,100.

There have been no casualties to bank employees as a result of banditry while last year Charles W. Wright, of the Edwardsport bank was killed.

The number of robberies this year, however is slightly larger than last. This with the decreased loot indicates that robbers have found it less productive to practice their trade on the larger institutions.

SENTENCE OF WIFE MURDERER COMMUTED

Believed First Time in History Nagg-ing Spouse Was Ever Recognized as Mitigation of Punishment

GOV. DONAHAY OF OHIO ACTS

(By United Press)

Columbus, O., Nov. 27—Governor

Vie Donahay today gave official recognition to a nagging wife as mitigation of punishment in a case of first degree murder and ordered the death penalty imposed on James Brady, Sandusky wife slayer, commuted to life imprisonment.

It is believed to be the first time in history that the goading of a wife ever reacted to save from execution the husband who murdered her.

The jury which convicted Brady of murdering his wife without a recommendation of mercy on the advice of the trial judge, refused to consider the plea of the defense council that the goading and nagging of Mrs. Brady provoked the crime and therefore the defendant's punishment should be lessened.

But when this argument was brought to Governor Donahay, he acted quickly and commuted sentence to life. Brady killed his wife with a meat cleaver.

QUICK RELIEF FROM CONSTIPATION

Get Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets

That is the joyful cry of thousands since Dr. Edwards produced Olive Tablets, the substitute for calomel.

Dr. Edwards, a practicing physician for 17 years and calomel's old-time enemy, discovered the formula for Olive Tablets while treating patients for chronic constipation and torpid livers.

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets do not contain calomel, but a healing, soothing vegetable laxative.

No griping is the "keynote" of these little sugar-coated, olive-colored tablets. They cause the bowels and liver to act normally. They never force them to unnatural action.

If you have a "dark brown mouth"—bad breath—a dull, tired feeling—sick headache—torpid liver—constipation, you'll find quick, sure and pleasant results from one or two of Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets at bedtime.

Thousands take them every night just to keep right. Try them. 15c and 30c.

TWO CARS STOLEN DURING THE NIGHT

MAXWELL AND FORD MISSING

Miss Georgia Hunt Reports Theft of Coupe While at Game—John Kennedy's Coupe Taken

Two automobiles were stolen and a business house entered by robbers during the night according to the police report this morning, and at noon, no trace of the thefts had been obtained.

Machines owned by John W. Kennedy and Miss Georgia Hunt, were reported stolen and the office of John P. Frazee and Son, lumber dealers and coal merchants, was entered by thieves, but nothing was believed to have been stolen.

The theft of the automobile owned by Miss Hunt, who lives at 208 East Eighth street, was reported shortly after the Rushville-Sheboyville basketball game. The car, a Maxwell coupe, license number 155095, was stolen from North Willow street where it was parked, while the occupants were attending the game at the Graham Annex gymnasium. Miss Hunt is a school teacher at Webb school.

The machine owned by Mr. Kennedy was stolen from in front of his residence, 404 West Third street, where he had left it for the night. Neighbors heard the car when it was started about two o'clock this morning. His machine was a 1923 Ford coupe.

The owners of each machine carried insurance. The police of surrounding cities were notified of the thefts.

The Frazee office is located a block west of the Kennedy home, and the police are of the opinion that the robbers who broke into the office, also made their escape by stealing the Ford coupe from in front of the Kennedy home.

At the lumber yard office, a window was smashed in order to get inside of the building. The desks and other compartments were ransacked, but the heavy safe was not tampered with, and Patrolman Will Havens, who investigated today, stated that nothing was missing from the office. The damage to the broken glass was estimated at $4.

CAUSE OF THANKS

BY HAL COCHRAN

Sum up the things that you really possess,
And you'll find that you're living in wealth.
Think of the good things that offset the stress,
And consider your friends and your health.
The troubles that come, and we all have our share,
Make the good things in life even greater.
We realize that when we stop to compare;
There are tough breaks, but good ones come later.

Misfortune may visit you once in a while,
But the question is, how do you take it?
The wrong way's to grumble; the right way's to smile;
After all, life is just what you make it.
If conscience is clear and your soul is awake,
And you ever keep good thoughts in store;
If you're living and doing for other folk's sake,
You have much to be thankful for.

SEEKS DIVORCE

ON PRISON LAW

Mrs. Eleanor Sorrell Brings Action Against Charlie Sorrell, Now Serving Life Term

NO OTHER CHARGE NEEDED

No Court Scheduled Today on Account of Thanksgiving—Court Case Heard Wednesday

Alleging that her husband is a lifetime convict in the prison at Michigan City, Mrs. Eleanor Sorrell has filed suit for divorce from Charlie Sorrell, in the circuit court, bringing the action under the provision provided for such cases.

Mrs. Sorrell says in her complaint that they were married October 22, 1921 and separated February 6, 1922 on which date she says her husband was convicted on a charge of murder, and has failed to provide since, because of his imprisonment. She says that she is employed as a clerk for the Illinois Central railroad.

There was no court today on account of the Thanksgiving Day holiday and the offices in the court house were closed in observance of the day.

In court Wednesday, Judge Sparks heard the case of Robert O. Kennedy against William T. Curry, the action being on an account alleged to be past due, and the action was taken under advisement.

The suit involved a $16 account, which the plaintiff, who is a physician of this city, says is due him on an unpaid bill. The case was heard recently in Justice Stech's court and the decision was appealed to the higher court.

The case of the Westerfield Pharmaceutical Company against Walter T. Vandament was called for trial Wednesday, and judgment on a note was entered for the plaintiff, for the amount of $90.43 and costs.

Another case set for trial Friday was expected to be called off, as it was understood that a motion for a change of venue was to be filed.

INTERESTCENTERS IN BOTTLE OF ACID

Authorities Endeavor to Determine Where it Was During First Few Days of Investigation

Theory is That it Was in Possession of Murderer, Who in Fit of Remorse Planned Suicide

(By United Press)

Columbus, Ohio, Nov. 27—The interest of authorities attempting to unravel the Sheatsley murder mystery, centered today on the bottle of carbolic acid which disappeared mysteriously from the parsonage medicine cabinet on the day of Mrs. Sheatsley's death, only to reappear a week later when detectives again searched the house.

If authorities can determine where the acid was during the first few days investigation, they believe they will have taken the first important step toward solving the mystery as how the body of the Lutheran pastor's wife got into the parsonage furnace.

Although John R. King, county prosecutor in charge of the investigation, was keeping his moves closely guarded, it was learned that he is bending every effort to solve the carbolic acid mystery as a key to the bigger puzzle as to who killed Mrs. Addie Sheatsley.

The new theory which the prosecutor has brought up and on which he intends to spend his Thanksgiving is the result of much investigation. King believes whoever took the acid out of the cabinet took it for the purpose of destroying his own life in a fit of remorse after the slaying of Mrs. Sheatsley.

Then losing his nerve, the slayer at some later date, perhaps after the Rev. Sheatsley and four children had gone to Canton, slipped back into the house and replaced the bottle. The suspect in connection with this theory is known to authorities and is available to them for questioning.

TO BE HELD MAY 10-17, 1925

More Than 1500 Communities in Nation Conducted Better Homes Campaign This Year

The first step in the preparation for Better Homes Week in Rushville for 1925, which will be held May 10 to 17, throughout the country, was made today, when Mrs. John Jordan, 916 North Main street, accepted the invitation of Secretary of Commerce Herbert Hoover to serve as chairman of a local committee to promote and develop a Better Homes demonstration.

More than 1500 progressive communities throughout the entire 48 states and develop a Better Homes Campaign last year, and the influence of these demonstrations and observances has made a lasting impression on those districts, says a report from National Headquarters.

The importance of community effort to render assistance to the prospective home buyer or builder in meeting the desires for a real home becomes apparent when it is realized that of five billions of dollars expended in building construction throughout the United States for 1924, two billions are for residential construction. And to this large sum must be added hundreds of millions which will be expended for furnishing and equipment of homes.

Better Homes in America is an educational movement which was formed about three and a half years ago. Supported by private gifts and public funds, and having no commercial backing or connections, it has been working since that time under the presidency of Herbert Hoover to help attain the following objectives:

To put knowledge of high standards in house-building, home-furnishing and equipment, and home life within the reach of all citizens.

To encourage the building of sound, attractive, economical single-family houses; to encourage the reconditioning and remodeling of old houses to render them sanitary, attractive and convenient, and to encourage thrift for home ownership.

To encourage general study of the housing problem and the problems of family life, to demonstrate each year the best types of house construction, home furnishing, and labor saving devices for the home which are within the reach of families in moderate circumstances.

To encourage sensible and appropriate furnishing for the home and the elimination of needless burdens in housekeeping.

Horn of Plenty

Red Letter Days like Thanksgiving may lose some of their thrill and glamor as we grow older. But it's a comfort to know that there's always a rising generation to whom Thanksgiving is an event of importance not far behind Santa Claus.

Originally when the pioneers were wearing knee breeches and shooting turkeys with blunderbusses, Thanksgiving was a solemn occasion—a day of thanks that Providence had blessed with abundant crops to preserve them from starvation.

No longer are people grateful for necessities. Thanks are raised only if the horn of plenty disgorges luxuries. One reason is that, while we have business depressions, we no longer have, for contrast, hard times as they thought of hard times in 1873.

The pinch is not as tight, even at its worst.

Largely it's a matter of thoughtlessness. If we pause to ponder our material prosperity, unprecedented in any other country or any previous civilization in mankind's long history, we realize that we have reason galore for thanks. If the early pioneers had had our brand of prosperity, our standard of living, they'd have thought they were passed on to the Promised Land.

America as we have it was born of hardship and human sacrifices. We are the Chosen People. Bring on the turkey—or must it be a bird of paradise before we admit gratitude?

BALTZWELL MAY NOT BE APPOINTED

Judge Anderson Can Veto Any Appointment and He is Very Friendly Toward Homer Elliott

BALTZWELL IS WATSON MAN

Indiana Senator Admits Defeat in His Attempt to Oust Bert Morgan From Prohibition Department

(By United Press)

Indianapolis, Ind., Nov. 27—While reports from Washington indicate that Senator Watson has asked President Coolidge to name Judge Baltzwell, of Princeton, as successor to Judge A. B. Anderson on the bench of the United States district court here, rumors were current about the federal building today that Baltzwell may not get the appointment.

The promotion of Judge Anderson to the United States Circuit Court of Appeals in Chicago is expected at any time.

Judge Anderson, it is pointed out, can veto any appointment to the local bench by refusing to resign.

It is said that Judge Anderson is very friendly toward Homer Elliott, district attorney, as a likely successor to the district judgeship.

Elliott, appointed to the position of district attorney, is expected to resign when the litigation to the Hawkins Mortgage Co. mail fraud case is out of the way.

He announced his intention of quitting early in the fall but was induced by Attorney General Stone to remain in office until the Hawkins case was tried.

Watson has practically admitted defeat in his attempt to oust Bert Morgan as head of the federal prohibition department in Indiana. Morgan is planning to serve until his term expires next June.

Both Elliott and Morgan were appointed on recommendation of Harry S. New when he was in the senate.

It is reported that Harry Long, of Muncie, the Watson candidate to succeed Elliott, has let it be known he does not want the job. His salary with the shipping board in Washington is larger than that of the district attorney.

No Action on Income Tax Publicity While Litigation Pends

Washington, Nov. 27—Repeal of the tax publicity clause in the Internal Revenue law, may await the decision of the court in test cases brought against newspapers by Attorney General Stone. Publicity of tax lists under the law as it now stands is not legal, in the opinion of representative Nicholas Longworth, Ohio Republican floor leader.

Despite announcements from several quarters that a bill for repeal of the section would be introduced as soon as congress convenes, Longworth said he knew of no general move in the house for its repeal at this session while litigation is pending.

OLD-TIME DINNER IS BECOMING OBSOLETE

Hotel Managers Declare They Were Swamped With Orders to Spread Tables With Turkey

CHEAPER THAN BEFORE WAR

Indianapolis, Ind., Nov. 27.—Many housewives took a vacation with the rest of the family here today.

They ate their Thanksgiving dinners in downtown hotels. Hotel managers declared that the old-fashioned Thanksgiving dinner is becoming obsolete and that they were swamped with orders to spread their tables with turkey and cranberry sauce today.

A comparison of Thanksgiving dinner prices at various hotels showed that a turkey dinner today costs approximately twenty-five cents less than before the war. That is, a dinner without a wine list. In pre-war days a dinner that would cost $2.00 today costs now approximately $1.75 but with wine added, the pre-war dinners ran as high as $3.00.

The Severin hotel here announced a turkey dinner at $1.50, while the Claypool served turkey and its trimmings at $2.00.

But the people who dined on the rich fare at hotels here had nothing on the boys and girls at Marion County Juvenile Detention home here. They had chicken, sweet potatoes, mashed potatoes and gravy, pumpkin and mince pies, candy, cake, ice cream, cranberries and other trimmings.

SERIES OF RAIDS CARRIED OUT

British Reported to Have Discovered Plot in Cairo, Egypt

Cairo, Egypt, Nov. 27.—British military authorities carried out a series of raids as rumors of unrest spread through the city.

A number of prominent persons were arrested including, Braka Pasha, minister of the interior in the late cabinet, and a widespread plot against the English was believed to have been discovered.

Meantime the number of troops in the street increased and the sullen temper of the people became more apparent.

TIRE FACTS

Don't pay a lot of money for a tire and think you are getting an extra good tire because of the high price. A high priced tire is the result of small quantity production. Goodyear's enormous production enables them to build a tire of unquestionable quality at a price that is surprising. We know that Goodyear is second to none in miles of trouble proof service and we delight in proving it to the man that uses tires.

STOP AND THINK: There must be a reason why MORE PEOPLE RIDE ON GOODYEAR TIRES THAN ON ANY OTHER KIND. Ask us the reason — WE KNOW.

God Will Provide:—Take no thought saying, What shall we eat? or, What shall we drink? or, Wherewithal shall we be clothed? But seek ye first the kingdom of God, and His righteousness; and all these things shall be added unto you. Matthew 6: 31, 33.

Prayer:—O Lord, we would live by faith and not by sight, for Thou hast given us Jesus Christ, and with Him Thou wilt also freely give us all things.

Overstuffed Living

"Don't pity the poor; rather have pity on the rich," said a local physician the other day. "Name one person who starved to death and I will name a hundred who ate themselves to death."

This is a good thing to remember on this day of feasting.

In the days of our forefathers men were keen of mind, active of body and rugged of honesty.

They ate simple food and not too much of it.

The generation of today is not to be compared with that of one hundred years ago, even though the average length of life is longer. This is attributed to better care of the young and increased knowledge regarding disease prevention, control and cure.

Any physician will give the same testimony as the one referred to above. We do not measure up physically to those of a generation ago because there is too much to eat and too much of it is eaten.

It is true that we have made wonderful forward strides in the past century. But they are no greater than the opportunities warranted. And they never originated in the brains of gourmands.

The fact can't be denied that we are literally eating ourselves to death, slowly but surely. We eat as our fancy dictates and we eat the wrong food to excess.

If we really knew the proportion of the population that is afflicted with the ills coming from over-indulgence in the wrong kind of food, the figures would be staggering.

The child that is stuffed and pampered from the time it begins to eat solid food will not develop a normal mind or body. The system can not properly assimilate the over-abundance of stuff that it is permitted to eat. Mental deficiency and bodily ailments are the inevitable results.

We may eat ourselves to death if we prefer, when we become our own masters, and that is surely our own affair.

But we have no right to stuff a child beyond capacity that is injurious to a body not yet matured. The child knows no better but we do, or should.

Uncomfortably Close

Indiana bank robberies in recent days should serve to remind us that vengeance who work without fear of interference in daylight are coming uncomfortably close.

After the looting of the Converse bank, the bankers of Warsaw took immediate steps for their own protection. They are taking no chances.

The Rochester Sentinel says that it would not be amiss to revive the almost forgotten "vigilance" squads. Then bank robbers could be received royally.

During an "epidemic" of bank robberies some time ago, Mayor Thomas arranged for one police officer to be on the public square during the noon hour when there was a lull in business, to guard against any unexpected attack. It would be the part of caution

permost in their minds that a bank
robbery is not impossible in Rush-
ville any time, because it is being done in the best regulated towns
and cities.

Miss Sallie Feree of Milroy and Miss Flossie Morris, living near Milroy, spent Thanksgiving in a way they did not intend to. Both are good horseback riders, Miss Feree having taken two prizes at the Rushville horse show. Miss Feree dared Miss Morris to ride to Arlington from Milroy, a distance of twenty miles. She took the dare.

Miss Lucile Geraghty entertained the Royal Rose club at her home in West First street this afternoon. Light refreshments were served.

After several of their sheep had been crippled by two vicious dogs, Will Alexander and John Beale, two farmers living northeast of this city got sweet revenge this morning when both the dogs were killed.

Mrs. Fanny Mansfield, daughter of J. K. Gowdy, remembered John Maunzer, by sending him a small publication of the Swiss Methodist church at Zurich. It is in the German language and the name of the little paper is "Friedensglocke," meaning "Bell of Peace."

Miss Elizabeth Baker of Indianapolis spent today with Mr. and Mrs. Rush G. Budd of North Harrison street.

The workmen at the Social Club rooms have been working overtime and all of the repairs will be completed in a few days.

Wilson T. Jackson, besides being an ex-mayor of Rushville and ex-deputy sheriff of the county, was justice of the peace in Washington township for sixteen years.

Misses Helen and Esther Black, daughters of Mayor-elect Black, entertained the members of the Vesperian club at six o'clock dinner at their home in North Jackson street Thursday evening, honoring Miss Ursula Hennessy of Indianapolis and Misses Madge and Joy Shelby of Lebanon.

Mrs. Sarah Giffin entertained a number of guests today in honor of Aunt Penny Crawford, who was ninety-two years old last week.

The sons of Mr. and Mrs. James H. Ball living north of this city were pleasantly surprised yesterday. But wouldn't you be, if some friend sent you a real live pony? The pony was sent by F. B. Gary of Rhineland, Wis.

Mrs. William Wynne and Mrs. Jane Plummer of Huntington are visiting their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Logan of Walker township. Mrs. Plummer, who is the widow of Reuben Plummer, formerly of this county, will spend the winter with Mr. and Mrs. Logan.

Miss Henrietta Coleman and Frances Sexton went to Oxford, O., yesterday afternoon to spend the week end with Miss Coleman's sister, Miss Effie Coleman, who is an instructor in history in Miami University.

WASHINGTON — No similar event in Washington official and social circles, since the birth of a daughter to President and Mrs. Cleveland back in the '90s, has so played the interest of the capital as has the report that the stork shortly will pay visit to the home of Nick and Alice Longworth.

It is suggested the arrival of an heir might play an important part in the political as well as the personal future of the popular Cincinnati congressman.

Should the stork time its arrival propitiously, the House might be minded to hand Nick the speakership, for which he is a candidate, as a token of its felicitations.

Some members however believe that with a baby in the home Nick would be more valuable in his present position of floor leader. "A new father is bound to get a lot of valuable experience on the floor," they say.

SECRETARY OF NAVY WILBUR knocked the tradition that cabinet members must always move with circumspection and dignity for "a row of tenpins" the other night when he showed up at the Y. M. C. A. bowling alley.

Wilbur shed his coat, rolled up his sleeves and forgot all about dignity and circumspection for an hour, while he hurled the ebony ball down the alleys for a succession of spares and strikes.

After he got the kinks out of his elbow Wilbur is said to have hurled a mighty wicked ball.

CHALK UP another victory for Washington's bobbed-hair brigade.

Incensed by criticism of bobbed heads, voiced by a visiting evangelist, choir girls in the Mount Vernon Methodist Church walked out on strike. It took all the diplomacy of the pastor, plus an open appreciation of bobbed-haired girls as "a mighty fine lot" to win them back.

ONLY on formal occasions do statesmen and diplomats in Washington don the shining, tall top hat—the "plug" hat—which a generation or so ago was affected by every legislator from the sticks who came to the capital.

But there is one person in Washington who holds fast to the fashion of the old days.

Charles C. Lancaster, lawyer and son-in-law of the late Samuel J. Randall, who was speaker of the House from 1877 to 1881, never walks abroad without his shining "plug."

Winter and summer, rain or shine, Lancaster's towering figure in his towering hat, is one of the sights of the city—a touch of what the capital looked like in the good old days before high buildings came in and high hats went out.

If you have visited the capital building any time in the last three or four years, you doubtless paused to watch the interestingly attired painter person who, apparently oblivious of the rubbering crowds around him, was engaged in restoring the brilliantly colored mural decorations of the big building.

If you came today, however, you'd miss him. For the artist fell in love with one visitor who paused to admire his work and today they are honeymooning.

This painter, Charles Ayer Whipple, has given a touch of color to the gray old building where Congress meets that will be remembered by visitors when they have forgotten what the decorations on the walls looked like.

In his jaunty artist's smock, a Tam O'Shanter cocked artistically over one ear, a long stemmed pipe in his mouth and a big palette splashed with vivid colors and stuck full of brushes, he himself made a picture more striking than any of the pictures he painted.

A most delightful meeting was held in the Grand Army room during the afternoon at which time the inspection was held. The corps will meet December 3, at which time election of officers will take place.

KIDNAPPED AND ASSAULTED

Chicago, Nov. 27.—Katherine Lapierre, a beautiful girl of 20, reported to police early today she had been kidnapped and assaulted by two young men during the night.

Miss Lapierre was motoring with Thomas Imposino, she said, when the youths jumped on the running board of the car, beat her into unconsciousness, then took her to a secluded railroad crossing and assaulted her. Physicians, after an examination, confirmed her story.

Imposino after regaining consciousness, reported his end of the story almost simultaneously with the girl. The young thugs took no money.

BANDITS ROB MARION, IND. BANK OF $4,000

Two Remain Outside Building and Five Rush Officials and Customers with Drawn Revolvers

ROBBERS WORK RAPIDLY

Marion, Ind., Nov. 27.—Seven armed bandits late Wednesday afternoon held up and robbed the South Marion State bank at Thirty-first and Washington streets and escaped with $4,000. The bandit gang drove up to the bank in a large car with side curtains and bearing a yellow license tag. Two of the robbers stayed outside the bank, and five rushed in with drawn revolvers. Two bank officials and two customers were in the bank when the robbers entered. M. E. Pope of the Grey Iron Foundry Company, and Mrs. George W. Vancleave were at the bank windows, and B. W. Baxter, cashier, and Margie Warner, assistant cashier, were in the cashier's cage. The robbers ordered them to throw up their hands.

The cashier, assistant cashier and Mr. Pope were forced into the vault and Mrs. Vancleave was shoved into a back room. The bandits worked rapidly, and gathering in the $4,000 rushed to their automobile, the motor of which had been left running, and drove southward traveling at a high rate of speed.

BANKS LOSE $42,000 BY ROBBERS IN 1924

Indiana Loses Only About Half as Much This Year as They Did in The Year of 1923

GOOD PROTECTIVE MEASURES

Indianapolis, Ind., Nov. 27.—Indiana banks have lost only about one-half as much to bank robbers this year as they did in 1923, according to a report of the Indiana Bankers' Association today.

The report attributed this to the fact that banks are taking better protective measures. More banks are installing modern alarm devices, better vaults and safes and are arming their employees.

Robbers obtained $85,930 last year while this year the total has reached only $42,100.

There have been no casualties to bank employees as a result of banditry while last year Charles W. Wright, of the Edwardsport bank was killed.

The number of robberies this year, however, is slightly larger than last. This with the decreased loot indicates that robbers have found it less productive to practice their trade on the larger institutions.

SENTENCE OF WIFE MURDERER COMMUTED

Believed First Time in History Naggling Spouse Was Ever Recognized as Mitigation of Punishment

GOV. DONAHAY OF OHIO ACTS

(By United Press)

Columbus, O., Nov. 27.—Governor Vic Donahay today gave official recognition to a nagging wife as mitigation of punishment in a case of first degree murder and ordered the death penalty imposed on James Brady, Sandusky wife slayer, commuted to life imprisonment.

It is believed to be the first time in history that the goading of a wife ever reacted to save from execution the husband who murdered her.

The jury which convicted Brady of murdering his wife without a recommendation of mercy on the advice of the trial judge, refused to consider the plea of the defense council that the goading and nagging of Mrs. Brady provoked the crime and therefore the defendant's punishment should be lessened.

But when this argument was brought to Governor Donahay, he acted quickly and commuted sentence to life. Brady killed his wife with a meat cleaver.

QUICK RELIEF FROM CONSTIPATION

Get Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets

That is the joyful cry of thousands since Dr. Edwards produced Olive Tablets, the substitute for calomel.

Dr. Edwards, a practicing physician for 17 years and calomel's old-time enemy, discovered the formula for Olive Tablets while treating patients for chronic constipation and torpid livers.

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets do not contain calomel, but a healing, soothing vegetable laxative.

No griping is the "keynote" of these little sugar-coated, olive-colored tablets. They cause the bowels and liver to act normally. They never force them to unnatural action.

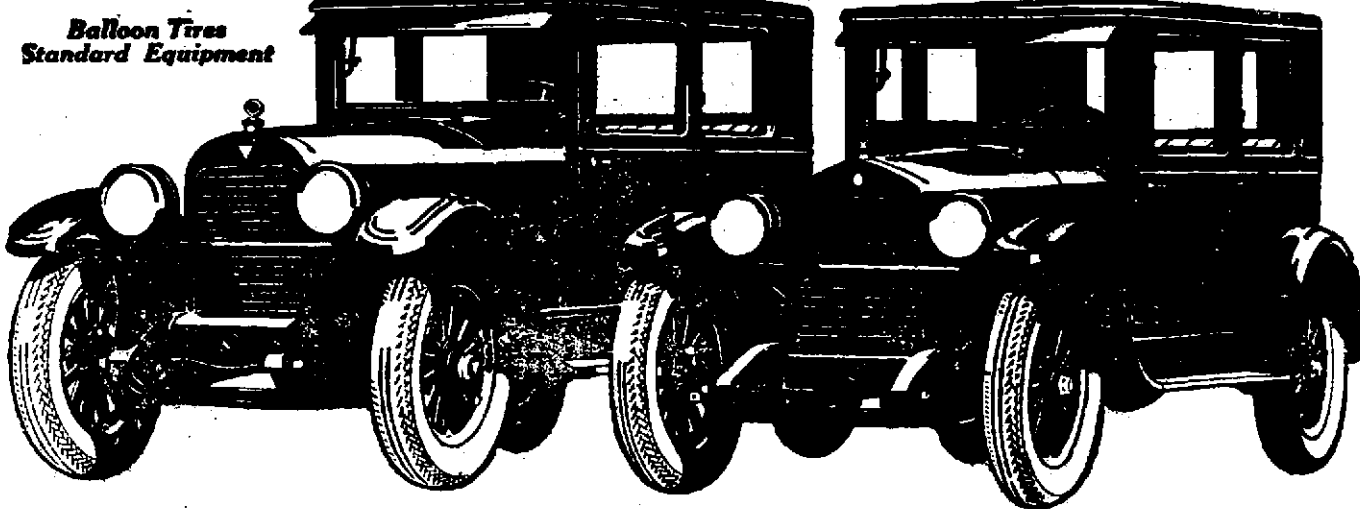

If you have a "dark brown mouth"—bad breath—a dull, tired feeling—sick headache—torpid liver—constipation, you'll find quick, sure and pleasant results from one or two of Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets at bedtime.

Thousands take them every night just to keep right. Try them. 15c and 30c.
